Feb. 20, 1906.

Please allow me space to make a suggestion anent the Bryan College of the specified time the venture trolly line. Owing to the great ex does not promise success, the pense of building and equipment, motor car could be sold for what is and the uncertainty that the ven- would bring, and dissolve the comture will pay operating expenses, pany. The dividends, even though much less attractive dividends, I small, would probably pay alwish to submit what appears to me losses on the sale of the car second to be a feasable plan to give the hand. We would then have dem- tion $360. matter a practical test at very onstrated the success or failure of little expense.

The I. & G. N. railroad company is noted for its generous and ac commodating attitude on all questions of public interest, and if might even be induced to furnish properly approached by a joint committee from Bryan and Col. lege, will, I feel quite sure, grant a franchise to run a motor car over their tracks for a period of say twelve to eighteen months. Then let a company be formed with sufficient capital to purchase a good substantial up-to-date motor car and operate it for the specified time. This car would reach the residence portion of Bryan both west and north over the railroad tracks, and would, over the spur as a cardidate for Mayor of Bryan at the ensuing now being built, run up to the

> All danger of collisions coul avoided by requiring the motorman to get orders from the operators at Bryan and College before leaving those stations. A just and equitable division of the net earnings could easily be made between the operating company and the railroad company. If at the end the enterprise at little expense.

CONCERN FELT.

rman Government Circles Appear However, to Be Hopeful.

Berlin, Feb. 7 .- While governmen circles maintain an outward and hopeful attitude regarding the conference at Algeciras, the indications are that much concern is felt about the outcome. Even a failure to reach an agreement on the police question is regarded probable. This inference is drawn from the fact that the inspired press had begun discussing the probable results of the failure to reach an agreement. These papers assert that a failure would not involve the danger of war so far as Germany is concerned, and they argue that France would never go to war on account of Morocco.
